About FDP

Faculty Development Program (FDP) would be an effort to generate enthusiasm amongst the faculty members to procure sponsored projects from various government and non-government agencies, in the areas of their expertise. The program has been designed in such a way that it covers end to end requirements of the faculty in identifying suitable projects, applying for the grant and executing the same after the project is approved. It would also help in developing skills of faculty members in writing professional project report after completion of the assignment. The FDP will also bridge the gap between the academic and real world by capturing the development of the Industry, Business and the society we are living in. The payoffs are in the form of more motivated and enlightened faculty members, who will apply for more and more such projects in future. It would be an excellent opportunity for faculty members to learn from an accomplished and Senior faculty from AMU who has hands on done dozens of sponsored projects successfully.

Objectives

- To develop an understanding of the sponsored projects, how to identify the right kind of projects and writing a successful project proposal.
- To understand the need and importance of getting projects as a tool of excellence in academics.
- Help the participants with the basics of executing a successful project.
- To develop the faculty members’ skills in writing the project proposal and the final report.
