

Centre for Career Guidance & Development (CCG&D), Integral University organized a student interaction on Friday, 26th July, 2019 with a delegation from Germany to present the “Opportunities for Higher Studies & Career progression in Germany”. This seminar was conducted in collaboration with Worldwide College, Lucknow.

The key members of the German team were Mr. Andrew John Geddes, founder of the world famous EURASIA Institute for International Education, Berlin, Germany & Mrs. Gabriele Wenk Deutsch, language teacher (German), at Goethe University Frankfurt. They briefed the students about on campus German learning program, student internship possibilities in Germany, post-graduation studies in Germany and specialization courses at various Universities in Germany. The program was attended by over 500 students across streams and good number of faculty members.

The delegation had a meeting with the university authorities and deliberated on the possible academic and placement collaborations.

The Honorable Chancellor, Integral University, Prof. S.W. Akhtar showed his pleasure for the proposed collaboration between the two organizations. He also hosted a special lunch for the guests and thanked them with a memento and invited them to visit the University again in future.
