

Celebration of Constitution Day-2017

Organized by:
Faculty of Law

The Faculty of Law, Integral University, celebrated the Constitution Day on 25th of November, 2017, in the Seminar Hall, IIIrd Floor, Faculty of Law. Retd. Justice S. M. Haseeb, Chairman, Legal Cell Integral University graced the occasion with his thought invoking speech on the regulation of rights and imposition of duties for the citizens of India. The students actively participated in the celebration with many speeches being made by the students, to name a few, Ms. Sakshi Dubey, student of LL.B. Ist year, gave a speech on the Historical Background of the Constitution, Mr. Ashutosh Kumar, student of B.A.LL.B. Ist year, made the audience reflect on their acts of appreciation of rights and neglect of duties as citizens.

The faculty also conducted a Quiz competition on the various aspects of constitution among the students. Their participation and enthusiasm was appreciated with token of gifts given to the winning teams and the audience as well.

A poster competition was also organized where students presented posters reflecting the status of Law in India successfully and enthusiastically.

The programme ended with the pledge taken by the students and Faculty of Law to consider their duties more important than rights for the effective implementation of the true spirit of the Constitution.

