Integral univ organises camps under NSS

LUCKNOW: Integral University organised a seven-day special camp from January 15 to 21 at five different locations in adopted villages under the National Service Scheme, Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India. The camp was held at Paikaramau, Bheekhapurva, Sadamau, Bhakhamau, and Shrikrishnapurwa. During the camp, around 250 students of Integral University from various programmes worked for the social cause under the supervision of the camp supervisors. Syed Naeem Akhtar, NSS coordinator, Integral University, said that the University had been organising these camps for the last 11 years. "This year we are covering five villages. In the camp programmes like social work, literacy campaign, cleanliness awareness drive, blood donation camp, plantation campaign, sports and recreation activities and a major focus on hygiene were undertaken," he said. The event was flagged off by SW Akhtar, VC of the varsity on January 15.
