Integral University signed an MoU with ICDL Asia

Lucknow 02nd Feb: Integral University Lucknow and International Computer Driving Licence (ICDL) Asia signed an MoU today, to work together to enhance the digital skills of the students of Integral University to international standards. ICDL Asia is the international standard for end user computer skills. Recognized in 150 Countries, ICDL training and certification has benefited 14 million candidates worldwide through a network of 25000 test centers. ICDL Asia is licensed by The European Computer Driving Licence Foundation Limited (EDCL Foundation) to operate the international Computer Driving Licence (ICDL Programme), an international computer skills certification programme within Asia and Oceania.

According to the MoU, Integral University Lucknow and ICDL Asia, will investigate the possibility of co-operating, formulating and researching into sharing information for directly enhancing end users computer skills with a large scale impact in mind.

On the occasion, Dr. Syed Nadeem Akhtar, Director Research and Planning, said, “This MoU brings together our respective organizations to work together to bring international standard computer skills to the students of Integral University”. “By signing this MoU, ICDL Asia is excited to bring international training and certification to Integral University in Lucknow”, said Mr. Sayem Mehmood, ICDL Asia Country manager for India.
