- Firoz Akhtar selected for Post Doctorate Research Fellow in USA.
- Ali Haider & Abeer Zahra are invited to attend 9th Annual Global Summit in UK.

Lucknow 06 April: Three students of Integral University got a chance to go International and represent Integral University on international platforms of United States of America (USA) and United Kingdom (UK). Mr. Firoz Akhter, Research Scholar, (thesis submitted) working in Department of Biosciences of Integral University got selected as Post Doctorate Research Fellow in Higuchi Bioscience Center, Division of Pharmacology and Toxicology, University of Kansas (KU), USA, under Dr. Shirley Shidu Yan (Howard Mossberg Distinguished Professor, Chief of Division on Neuroscience and Neurodegenerative Diseases, Higuchi Bioscience Center, University of Kansas, USA).

While, Mr Ali Haider, final year student of B.Tech Civil Engineering and Ms. Abeer Zahra, B.Ed first year student, of Integral University, both are formally invited to attend 2016 World Student Environmental Network's 9th annual Global Summit: 'Sustainability Together' in UK. The summit will be jointly hosted by both the University of Sussex and Keele University in the United Kingdom 24th - 30th July 2016.

It may be noted that, earlier, Ali Haider was also selected for top 30 players from India for Indian Roller Hockey camp where Indian Roller Hockey squad will be selected. Further, Indian Roller Hockey team will head towards roller hockey world championship, which would take place in USA this year.

The Vice Chancellor, Prof SW Akhtar informed that Integral University is one among the three institutions from India from where the students got selected for above Global Summit. The other two institutions are IIM Kolkata and AMU, Aligarh. He congratulated the students on their well deserved selection and wished them a bright future.
