Date: 22-02-16

Two Research Scholar of Integral will go International

- Chedi Lal Gupta will do short term research internship in Cambridge University (UK).
- Sibhghatulla will participate in 8th HOPE meeting in Japan.

Lucknow 22 Feb: Two Research Scholar pursuing their research work in Department of Biosciences of Integral University got a chance to go international. Chedi Lal Gupta, Research Scholar under the supervision of Dr. Preeti Bajpai, Associate professor, Department of Bio-Sciences has been selected for Indo-UK exchange programme under Newton-Bhabha PhD Placement programme at University of Cambridge, Cambridge, United Kingdom. While, Sibhghatulla, Research Scholar under supervision of Dr. Syed Mohd. Danish Rizvi, Assistant Professor, Department of Biosciences, has been selected for participation in 8th HOPE Meeting to be organized by Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (JSPS) in Tokyo, Japan during March 7-11, 2016.

Chhedi Lal Gupta will do a six months Short Term Research Internship at UK under host supervisor Dr. Andreas Bender, Lecturer for Molecular Informatics, Centre for Molecular Informatics, Department of Chemistry, University of Cambridge. This project will wrap up the broad area of immunology by searching of novel immunomodulatory compounds using different bioinformatics approaches.

At 8th HOPE Meeting, Sibhghatulla will deliver a lecture on topic "Molecular epidemiology of CTX-M resistance marker among Escherichia coli and Klebsiella pneumoniae isolates of clinical origin". HOPE Meetings are held for excellent graduate students and young researchers specially selected from countries around the Asia-Pacific and Africa region. These meeting gives an opportunity for the participants to engage in interdisciplinary discussions with Nobel laureates and other distinguished scientists pioneering the frontiers of knowledge.

On the occasion, Prof SW Akhtar, Vice Chancellor, Integral University praised the efforts made by the research scholars and blessed them for their bright future. Pro Vice Chancellor and Chairman Research Development Committee, Prof T Usmani, also extended his best wishes to the research scholar.
