Report of Workshop on Research Paper Publication organized by Journal Club, Department of Commerce, FCM on February 19,2024

Journal Club, Department of Commerce, Faculty of Commerce & Management under its research orientation activities organized a one-day workshop on the topic of ‘‘Research Paper Publication’ on February 19,2024 to sensitize the scholars about the significance of research publication in academic domain.

Inaugurating the workshop, Prof Adeel Maqbool, Vice-Dean, FCM lauded the efforts of Journal Club and hoped that they will continuously engage with the scholars to uphold their research outlook and will raise the research bar of the faculty by bringing out publications in highly indexed journals. He further said that good publications facilitate career advancement, professional growth for researchers, and interdisciplinary collaboration so it becomes essential for researchers to prioritize the publication of their research papers and actively contribute to scholarly discourse.

DQAC & PhD programme coordinator of the department Dr Farheena Sardar Khan highlighted the importance good publications and said that publication of research papers is crucial for the academic community, as it promotes scientific progress, intellectual growth and maintains the quality and credibility of the academic community. She mentioned that Journal Club has been established consisting of the various scholars of the department who will periodically organize such research activities.

A large number of scholars from all over the university attended and discussed on the process of publication tactics and applied statistical tools required for it. Dr Jamal Abdul Nasir Faculty member of the department briefed the participants regarding the whereabouts of the research publication process.
