2 Day - FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM (FDP)

ON "RESEARCH PROJECTS: SUBMITTING PROPOSAL & SEEKING GRANTS"

Department of Commerce & Management, Faculty of Commerce & Management, in Association with Internal Quality Assurance cell (IQAC) organized a 2 day Faculty Development program (FDP) on "Research Projects: Submitting Proposal & Seeking Grants" on 2nd & 3rd of March 2020, in Central Auditorium. The session was presided by Professor Asiya Chaudhary, Department of Commerce, Aligarh Muslim University, an eminent speaker and educationist in the field.

Prof. Asiya Chaudhary, is Life Member of The Textiles Association (India), Mumbai. She is also Member of The Committee to Monitor the Academic Progression & University Ranking, Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh. She is Chief Coordinator, Centre for United Nations Chapter, established in the Department of Commerce, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, Selected in the panel of Associate Professor, of Finance & Accounting for the Council's Chair of ICCR (Indian Council for Cultural Relation), New Delhi.

The program started by felicitating the eminent guests with bouquets, by our volunteers followed by welcome note by Dean FCM Prof Anoop Kumar Saxena. He greeted the guests and audience with his humble words followed. Our Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Prof. Aqil Ahmad was present with all his support and motivating speech for the students and audience. He highlighted the initiatives of the University and especially the DCBM and IQAC, which both have been taking, to refine and polish the knowledge and experience of students and staff in the campus. The 2-Day workshop was concluded with expression of gratitude and thanks to the honourable guests Prof. Asiya Chaudhari, along with University's Memento, by Head of DCBM Dr. Syed Shahid Mazhar. He summarised the efforts and plans of the Department and University, on whole, for the cause of education par excellence for all on the campus and society, as whole.

Prof. Asiya started her session with a brief highlights on the importance of report and thesis writing. The vocabulary, language and concept plays very important role. This should be well calibrated and drafted. The essence of your report should be well expressed in the abstract. She took the student thru the whole process of report writing, starting from the subject, structure, titles, sub titles, ethics, various standards, formats. One of the major topics of Prof. Asiya was the evaluation of such reports by the evaluators, as what is being sought and examined by evaluators. This gave students, the first hand knowledge, as how to refine their work. She approached and explained the topics very professionally and guided the students with her wisdom, thru the whole session.

The report and thesis writing was explained in micro and medium with single agenda, as how to deliver the experience best in word and numbers, which can play a major role in future building, once the conclusions are implemented.

Prof Asiya highlighted the importance of the funding required for good research projects. This was a very major part of her knowledge of the day. She tried her best to cover the resource and funding aspect, to very depth of the topic and explained the approach and avenues, one should take to initiate, execute and conclude the research, with enough funding from proper and professional sources. The consequences, in all scenarios, were well detailed, as she has vast experience in the field of research and education. She supported her topic with live examples and took some case studies too.

“Tribhovandas Bhimji Zaveri Limited ” (TBZ) were one of the sponsor of the 2 Day Workshop , under their initiative for education and nation building.

The program turned to be a very successful one under the flagship of Dean and Head (DCBM) that can be easily seen in the warm response from audiences and the number of registrations done.

The faculty members and research scholars and students of Integral University experienced, one of the best sessions and applauded the efforts of the department and University. They were overwhelmed with the humbleness and knowledge of the guest speaker Prof. Asiya Chaudhary. The workshop was well attended by scholars and faculty of various other Universities too. The DCBM and IQAC of Integral University, have queue of plans and program throughout the calendar year, and is going extra mile, to do best of their part in nation building, to the best.
