FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM (FDP)

Education is a light that indicates the best path for humanity. The traditional teaching method "chalk and talk" is replaced by new, creative teaching methods. The Faculty Development Program (FDP) focuses on comprehensive teacher development with new and creative techniques and strategies for teaching. The curriculum will motivate learners to participate and develop their teaching skills to meet their needs.

OBJECTIVES OF FDP

1. To generate awareness among participants about their strengths and limitations in teaching and the latest pedagogical approaches
2. To outline the features of Outcome-based education.
3. Make the participants understand and use innovative methods of teaching- learning.
4. To enhance innovative and effective pedagogy in the classroom.
5. To understand the idea and mechanism of CO-PO mapping and CO Attainment.
6. To provide information about digital learning resources and their effectiveness.

CONTENT OF FDP

1. Higher Education and the Digital Future: Inventing Pedagogical Practices.
2. Teaching through Cases: A participant centric approach.
3. Improvising teaching-learning using Bloom's Taxonomy.
4. Mentoring, Supporting, and Enhancing Student's Online Learning Experience.
5. Outcome-based Education & Accreditation.
6. Priming Effects of Widespread Reading on B-School Mentors.
