

Report on National Conference on Impact of Economic Reforms and Its Impact on Indian Economy 22-23February' 2018

Integral University, Department of Commerce & Business Management in association with Human Resource Development Centre has concluded the two days National Conference on “Economic Reforms and Their Impact on Indian Economy”

Prof. S.W. Akhtar, Hon'ble Chancellor, Integral University has presided over the Inaugural Function. Prof. Devi Singh, VC, Flame University and former Director IIM, Lucknow was the Chief Guest of the function who extensively spoke about Demonetization- and its positive and Negative impacts on common man and Indian economy.

The two eventful days were full of relevant discussions on how the economic reforms are of immense importance and use to a common man. From more ATMs in the villages to an increase of Swadeshi goods in Videshi Markets, the Indian progress was looked upon during the conference. With the impact of Investors summit, the economic boom is expected to give fruitful results in the education sector and simplifying and understanding these existing economic reforms would be helpful” said Prof. A. K Saxena Conference Chair.

Prof. S.W. Akhtar, Hon'ble Chancellor, Integral University has presided over the Valedictory Function on 23rd February after completion of remaining two Technical Sessions. Prof. Devi Singh, VC, Flame University and former Director IIM, Lucknow was the Chief Guest of the function. Prof. Furqan Qamar, Secretary General, AIU, threw light on the various governmental policies towards Make in India , Digital India and Skill India and their Implication.

Prof. S.S. Hashmi, former Member Planning Commission, Govt. of India, Mr. Alok Ranjan, former Chief Secretary, Govt. of U.P. and was the guest of honours. Prof. Syed Aqeel Ahmad, Director Human Resource Development Centre, Integral University has delivered the welcome address. Prof. A. K Saxena, Conference Chair has presented the Conference Report. Every speaker has given their view on the economic reforms and also explains the impact of reforms on Indian economy. A Cultural Programme was organized by the students of Department of Commerce and Business Management in the main auditorium for the entertainment of dignitaries and guests. Mrs. Azra Waseem, Principal Techno Academy School, Lucknow was the Chief Guest of the programme. Students presented University Band, Songs, Poetry and Skit. Dr. Asma Farooque, Head of Department and Convener, Organizing Secretary of the conference delivered the vote of thanks.

