Report on “Commencement of Summer School 2025”

On Wednesday, 11th June 2025, The Summer School 2025 commenced successfully with an enthusiastic participation of around 70 students on the Inaugural day. The program is an initiative by the Centre for Career Guidance & Development (CCG&D) and is open to all students of Integral University. The summer school comprises of two core areas:

- English Speaking & Grooming
- Aptitude with Reasoning

The Inaugural session began with a warm welcome address by Ms. Shahana Khan, representing CCG&D. She greeted the students and shared the objective of the summer school initiative. This was followed by a motivational address by Dr. Nilanjan Mukherji (Director-CCG&D). He emphasized the importance and relevance of the offered classes in shaping the students' overall personality, communication skills, and logical aptitude, which are essential for academic and career success.

An ice-breaking session and student introduction followed, which helped create a friendly and interactive environment among the participants.

As the sessions progressed, Prof. Furqan Qamar (Chief Advisor to Hon'ble Chancellor), graced the event with his presence as the senior dignitary for the day. He interacted with the students, encouraged them to make the most of the summer school, and shared valuable insights from his own academic and professional experiences. Adding a unique touch, he also spoke on one of the topics from the English class, namely "Tongue Twisters," engaging students and making the session both educational and enjoyable.

Prof. Qamar appreciated the efforts of the CCG&D team and encouraged them to continue such impactful initiatives. His words were met with gratitude and appreciation by Dr. Nilanjan Mukherji, who thanked him for his motivating and enriching address.

With this successful beginning, the regular classes have commenced, which will also feature sessions by External Experts in both English and Aptitude. These expert-led sessions are designed to provide practical skills, confidence building, and improved communication and reasoning abilities to all participating students.

The Summer School 2025 is set to be a holistic developmental program, aimed at empowering students with essential life and career skills.
