Seminar Report on “Global Opportunities in Finance and Accounts Domain”

A seminar on the topic “Global Opportunities in Finance and Accounts Domain” was organized under the aegis of Centre for Career Guidance & Development (CCG&D), Integral University, on 14th October 2025 (Tuesday). The objective of the seminar was to make students aware of the vast and evolving career avenues in the fields of Finance and Accounting, both in India and across the globe. The seminar was coordinated by Mohammad Shahnawaz (Senior Manager-Corporate Relations) from CCG&D.

The session aimed to equip commerce students with knowledge about internationally recognized professional certifications, global market requirements, and the diverse career options available in today’s competitive financial landscape.

Session Details

The guest speaker was Mohd Saad Kamaal (Counsellor at Zell Education) – a leading professional training institute specializing in finance and accounting certifications such as ACCA, CPA, and CMA.

During his address, Mr. Kamaal elaborated on the growing importance of professional qualifications that align with global accounting and finance standards. He provided a detailed overview of how these certifications open doors to international career opportunities and enhance employability in sectors like banking, consulting, auditing, taxation, and corporate finance.

He also discussed the structure, eligibility, and benefits of global programs such as:

- ACCA (Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) – recognized in over 180 countries
- CPA (Certified Public Accountant) – a top credential for accounting professionals, especially in the US
- CMA (Certified Management Accountant) – focused on management accounting and strategic financial management

The speaker highlighted how finance professionals today are not limited to traditional accounting roles but are increasingly involved in data-driven decision-making, financial analytics, and international business operations. He emphasized the significance of acquiring digital literacy, communication skills, and adaptability to succeed in global financial careers.

The session was highly interactive, with students enthusiastically participating in the Q&A round. They raised questions related to career options, required skill sets, job opportunities abroad, and preparation strategies for professional finance exams. Mr. Kamaal addressed each query with clarity, offering valuable guidance on academic planning, time management, and the advantages of pursuing international certifications alongside graduation. He also spoke about Zell Education's career support initiatives, placement tie-ups, and industry immersion programs designed to prepare students for global roles.

Overall, the session proved to be informative, inspiring, and career-oriented, offering valuable insights into the global dimensions of the finance and accounting profession.
