

Report On Preparation Path for Civil Examination

Monday, December 12, 2022

Centre for Career Guidance and Development, Integral University, Lucknow, organized a session on Preparation Path for Civil Services Examination by Dhyeya IAS, one of the leading coaching institutions for UPSC, IAS, CSE and All State PCS exams. Mr. Sudhir Kumar, Sub Divisional Magistrate (SDM), stated that UPPSC exam needs dedicated preparation, the ability to think well, reason well and to develop the right attitude. He advised to start the preparation as early as possible, gain literature knowledge and get updated about current news. He highly recommended to study from NCERT books, to read newspaper regularly, to solve online test series, mock tests and previous years' prelims and mains question papers to get an idea about the nature of the questions asked in the exams. Students of B.Tech, BBA, B.Com, MBA Pre final and Final year were invited to attend the seminar.

Mr. Sudhir Kumar emphasized on building self-confidence which is essential for UPPSC exam and its interview. Active listening, excellent communication skills, decision making skills, problem solving capabilities, resilience, self-discipline, emotional intelligence and positivity were some of the qualities that were listed by him that students should imbibe themselves with. More than 50 students attended the session.

Top Center: Mr Sudhir Kumar, Sub Divisional Magistrate, making a presentation

Top Center: Students attending the session

Mr. Mohammad Shahnawaz, training and placement officer, CCG&D coordinated the event. Post the presentation, Mr. Sudhir Kumar addressed several queries from the students. To conclude, the students gained insight on the prerequisites for civil services exam; moreover, they were also made aware of a different career path where they can serve their nation and contribute towards its growth and be proud of it.