Report on Teacher's Day Celebration at Integral University

The Faculty of Commerce & Management, at Integral University under the stewardship of the department's Literary and Cultural Committee members Dr. Neda Tasneem, Dr. Uroosa Aslam and Ms. Amisha Srivastava, orchestrated a compelling celebration on the 6th September'24 to mark Teacher's Day, although originally scheduled for the 5th of September, was postponed by a day due to unforeseen circumstances. The delay, however, did not diminish the enthusiasm of the students nor the appreciation felt for our beloved teachers. The celebration became a truly memorable occasion, highlighting the deep bond between students and faculty, and recognizing the unwavering commitment of our teachers to shaping students futures.

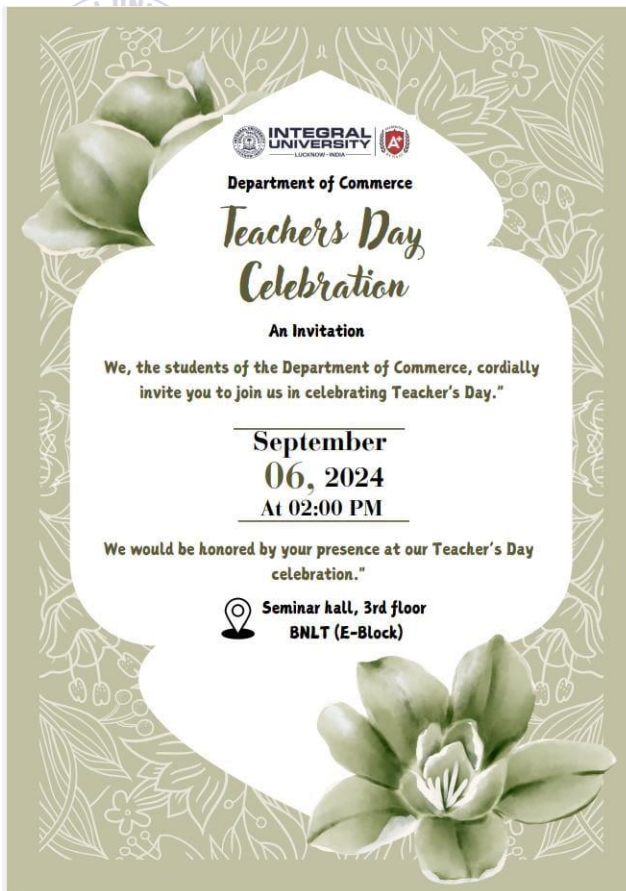

Throughout the event, the stage was ablaze with performances that resonated deeply with the audience. B.Com, BHM & M.Com students, across all academic years, took centre stage with gripping skits, impassioned speeches, series of fun & engaging games and soul-stirring poetry, each performance was a unique expression of gratitude and respect, designed to make the day special for the educators who have made such a significant impact on their lives.

Following the event, The gathering was graced by our esteemed Vice Dean, Prof. Adeel Maqbool, who addressed the audience with eloquence and grace, Prof. Adeel Maqbool underscored the significance of Teacher's Day and commended the collective efforts of the faculty and students in organizing and participating in the event with immense grace and warmth. He began by expressing his heartfelt thanks to the students of the Department of Commerce for organizing such an impressive and meticulously planned event. His praise for the efforts put forth by the students instilled a sense of pride and joy among everyone present, making it clear that the event was not just a celebration of teachers but also a testament to the creativity and dedication of the students.

The overwhelming attendance, spanning students and faculty members alike, bore testimony to the success of the event. The Teachers' Day celebration was a fitting tribute to the dedication and hard work of the faculty. It was a day filled with joy, gratitude, and mutual respect, and it will undoubtedly be remembered as one of the most special events of the academic year. The efforts of the Department of Commerce students were instrumental in making the celebration a success, and their contributions left a lasting impact on both the teachers and the entire community.

The event was a fitting tribute to the dedication, hard work, and passion of our teachers, and it left everyone with memories that will be cherished for years to come.
