Report on Debate competition at Integral University

The Faculty of Commerce at Integral University, under the able leadership of the department's Literary Committee members—Dr. Sultan Ahmad, Dr. Mansoor Ilahi, Dr. Swapnil Sharma, and Ms. Saba Fatima—successfully organized a debate competition on the thought-provoking topic, “Should Youth be Given Leadership Roles in Politics to Represent Their Generation Better?” on the 6th of February, 2025. The event aimed to engage students in meaningful discourse surrounding the involvement of youth in political leadership, fostering an environment where differing perspectives could be discussed and debated.

The debate competition witnessed active participation from the students, with the first prize for speaking in favor of the motion being awarded to Sadaf Nihal from the BCom (Hons) 1st year. In an impressive demonstration of persuasive speaking and strong argumentation, Sadaf presented a compelling case for youth leadership in politics. The first prize for speaking against the motion was tied between Khushi Akhtar from the Department of Commerce and Raksha Hussain from the Department of Computer Applications, both of whom provided a nuanced and thoughtful counter-argument, presenting valid points on the potential challenges and limitations of entrusting youth with leadership roles in politics.

The event was further elevated by the presence of esteemed dignitaries who graced the occasion with their words of wisdom. The Vice Dean of the Faculty, Prof. Adeel Maqbool, attended the gathering and shared his valuable insights, addressing the importance of youth in the shaping of future governance. The external judge, Dr. Syed Arafat Hasan Rizvi, added depth to the event by evaluating the speakers' performances with a keen and thoughtful perspective. Dr. Shujauddin Khan, our internal guest, also addressed the audience, highlighting the significance of intellectual discourse and the role of education in shaping the future leaders of the country.

The Literary Committee and all participants deserve commendation for their efforts in making this event both educational and entertaining, and it is hoped that such initiatives continue to inspire future generations of students.
