Report on International Women's Day Celebration

The Department of Commerce successfully organized the International Women's Day Celebration on 8th March to honour and appreciate the contributions of women in various fields.

The event was co-coordinated by Dr. Farhina Sardar Khan and Dr. Neda Tasneem, both distinguished members of the department. The event aimed to foster an environment of equality, empower women, and raise awareness about the importance of gender equality in education and the workplace. The event was well-attended by faculty members, staff, and students, reflecting the spirit of respect and gratitude towards women in academia.

The program was anchored by Hiba Shakir and Tasmiya, students of B.Com 3rd year, who seamlessly conducted the proceedings of the event.

The celebration commenced with an inspiring address by the Dean, Prof. (Dr.) Adeel Maqbool, who highlighted the importance of women's empowerment and their invaluable role in shaping the academic and professional landscape.

Following the Dean's address, Asif and Umrah Gauhar delivered thought-provoking speeches on the significance of International Women's Day, emphasizing gender equality, women's achievements, and the need for continued efforts towards inclusivity.

Then there was a key highlight of the event the gift distribution ceremony, where the Dean, Prof. (Dr.) Adeel Maqbool, presented tokens of appreciation to the female faculty members, recognizing their dedication and contributions.

The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Abdul Jamal Nasir, expressing gratitude to all attendees, speakers, and organizers for making the celebration a memorable one.

The International Women's Day celebration was a resounding success, reinforcing the values of respect, appreciation, and empowerment for women in the academic sphere.
