The Department of Commerce, Integral University, organised a Poster Making and Essay Writing Competition on 11th October 2025 under the theme “Shakti 5.0: Empower, Educate, Excel” as part of the Mission Shakti Abhiyan Phase 5.0. The event aimed to encourage students to express their thoughts and creativity on women empowerment and the pivotal role of women in social and economic development.

The event commenced with a warm welcome and engaging compering by Dr Mansoor Illahi, who set the tone for the session and introduced the purpose of the competition. This was followed by an inspiring address by the Vice Dean, Prof. Adeel Maqbool, who emphasised the importance of empowering women through education, safety, and leadership. Subsequently, Prof. Ehtesham addressed the audience, highlighting how initiatives like Mission Shakti foster gender equality and societal progress.

The Essay Writing Competition featured thought-provoking topics such as “Women as Agents of Social and Economic Transformation,” “Women-Led Development – The Heart of Mission Shakti,” “Women’s Safety – The First Step Towards Empowerment,” and “Women’s Education – A Tool for Community Development.” Participants eloquently expressed their perspectives on women’s empowerment and the need for inclusive growth.

Simultaneously, the Poster Making Competition witnessed enthusiastic participation where students showcased their creativity and artistic flair in depicting the theme visually.

After a thorough and fair evaluation of all the entries, the results were declared. In the Poster Making Competition, Chandranshu Sharma from B.Com 2nd year secured first place, while Ashish Yadav, also from B.Com 2nd year, took second for their creative and meaningful representations of the theme.
