Report of the Expert lecture on “Marketing Orientation of ACCA & Employability Skills”
Organized by
Department of Commerce

Department of Commerce, Integral University organized an Expert Lecture on “Marketing Orientation of ACCA & Employability Skills” on 31 July 2025. The primary objectives of the guest lecture were to orient newly admitted B. Com (ACCA) students towards the global relevance of the ACCA programme, enhance their understanding of industry expectations and employability skills, motivate them to develop professional competencies such as communication, adaptability and teamwork, and prepare them for career readiness through practical industry exposure.

The session was delivered by Mr. Siddhant Chandel, Regional Head – Business Relations, ISDC, who provided valuable insights on the market orientation and international recognition of the ACCA qualification. He explained that ACCA, accepted in more than 180 countries, equips students with competencies in auditing, taxation, financial management, digital finance, sustainability reporting, risk management, and strategic leadership, thereby making them globally competitive professionals.

This was followed by a lecture by Mr. Hadrine H. Pereira, Head – Corporate Relations & Placements, ISDC, who emphasized the importance of employability skills and corporate readiness. He highlighted the need to develop effective communication, teamwork, adaptability, critical thinking, and digital literacy for professional success and encouraged students to participate actively in internships and industry interactions to strengthen their career prospects. The session witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and proved to be highly informative and motivating. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks to both the distinguished speakers. The guest lecture was attended by 79 students along with faculty members of the department.
