The Department of Commerce, Faculty of Commerce & Management, Integral University, in collaboration with the National Service Scheme (NSS), organized an extension activity under the initiative “School Chalo Abhiyan” on April 9, 2026, at Bhakhamau, Kursi Road, Lucknow. The program was conducted with the objective of promoting awareness about the importance of education among children belonging to underprivileged communities and encouraging them to enrol in schools and continue their studies. The activity also aimed to instil a sense of social responsibility among students by engaging them in meaningful community outreach. A large number of students actively participated in the program under the guidance of faculty members and coordinators. The students interacted with children and their families in the village and emphasized the significance of education in shaping a better future. Various awareness activities were carried out, including basic teaching sessions, motivational interactions, and informal discussions with community members. Students also engaged children in simple learning activities to develop their interest in education and make learning enjoyable and accessible.

The program was conducted under the leadership of the Convener, Prof. Adeel Maqbool, along with the active support of faculty coordinators including Prof. Ehtesham Ahmad, Dr. Farhina Sardar Khan, Dr. Shujauddin Khan, Ms. Amisha Srivastava, and Dr. Aamir Aslam. The student coordinators, namely Shahanawaz Ali, Anam, Afza Siddiqui, and Mohd. Taha, played a significant role in organizing and executing the activity effectively. Their efforts ensured smooth coordination between students, faculty, and the local community.

The extension activity proved to be highly impactful as it helped raise awareness among parents and children regarding the value of education and the importance of regular school attendance. It also motivated children to pursue formal education and inspired community members to support educational initiatives. Furthermore, the activity provided students with an opportunity to understand real-life social issues and contribute positively towards community development. Overall, the program successfully strengthened the bond between the university and the community while promoting inclusive education and social upliftment.

Glimpses of the outreach activities organized by the Department of Commerce, Integral University, Lucknow, aimed at promoting awareness on the theme “School Chalo Abhiyan” among local residents.
