Report

A debate competition titled “Argumenta – A Battle of Words” was successfully organized on 31 January 2026. The event brought together enthusiastic participants from different departments, making it a vibrant and intellectually stimulating occasion. The topic for the debate was:

“Should celebrity influencers be held legally accountable for spreading misinformation?”

The event witnessed active participation from students across various departments, each presenting well-researched arguments with confidence, clarity, and conviction. The competition offered a valuable platform for students to express their viewpoints, refine their public speaking skills, and engage in constructive intellectual discourse.

The debate was judged by Prof. Ehtesham Sir and Dr. Shafe Sir, whose insightful evaluation and constructive feedback added great value to the event. Their presence and expertise greatly contributed to the success and credibility of the competition.

After a highly engaging and competitive session, the winners were announced as follows:

Nashra Khan For the Motion and Ayesha Khan won Against the Motion.

The event concluded on a highly positive note, leaving participants and attendees enriched with new perspectives and a deeper understanding of the issue. “Argumenta – A Battle of Words” proved to be an excellent initiative in promoting critical thinking, communication skills, and academic engagement among students.
