

Successful Doctoral Dissertation Defense of Ms. Shaista Taskeen

Ms. Shaista Taskeen successfully defended her doctoral thesis in a viva voce examination, marking the culmination of her rigorous research journey. The defense took place on 24 July 2024 before a panel of esteemed academicians which includes, Prof. Prakash Chandra Pradhan, Department of English, Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi, Prof. Wahajul Haq, Dean, Doctoral Studies and Research, Integral University, Prof. H.M. Arif, Head, Dept. of Languages, Integral University, faculty members of Department of Languages, and research scholars. The title of her thesis is “Narrative Journalism in the Age of Post-Truth: An Analysis of the Select Literary Texts by Basma Abdel Aziz, Arundhati Roy, Elif Shafak and Taran N. Khan”. The panel thoroughly questioned Ms. Taskeen on various aspects of her work. She demonstrated a comprehensive understanding of her research topic, methodology, and findings. She articulated her arguments clearly and responded to queries with confidence and insight. The examiners were impressed by the originality and significance of her contribution to the field. Following a brief deliberation, the panel unanimously agreed to award Ms. Taskeen her Ph.D. This achievement represents a significant milestone in her academic career.

Warm regards,
Prof. H.M. Arif
Head, Dept. of Languages
Integral University