

Legal Aid Society, Faculty of Law, Integral University

Notification of II National Extempore Competition

Imparting legal awareness is the first step towards ensuring prompt and effective access to justice. The Legal Aid Society, Faculty of Law, Integral University was established, in 2019, under the guidance of Dr. Abhishek Kumar Singh to redress the underprivileged people of the society, for providing free legal aid services, to fulfil the objectives of Article 39A of the Constitution of India.

About The Event

After the massive success of the I National Online Extempore Competition, Legal Aid Society, Faculty of Law, in collaboration with the Women Grievance Cell, Integral University has come up with the II Edition of the same. Extempore is an excellent way to assist the students not only in spontaneous thinking but also in asserting their creative ideas with precision. The theme of the competition is in correspondence with the Goal 5 Gender Equality and Goal 10 Reduced Inequalities of the United Nations Goals of Sustainable Development this year.

The objective of the competition is to make the students confident and better orators so that they can fearlessly express their views on any topic. Each participant will be given 2 to 4 minutes to prepare their point of view on the extempore topic randomly selected for them, by the organizers under the broad themes to speak.
