As per the regulations of the University Grants Commission (UGC) and directives of the Higher Education Department, Government of Uttar Pradesh, the Office of the Dean, Students' Welfare, Integral University observed Anti-Ragging Day on 12th August 2025, followed by a weeklong Anti-Ragging Week from 12th to 18th August 2025. The initiative aimed to raise awareness about the harmful effects of ragging and to foster a safe, inclusive, and respectful campus environment.

The event commenced with an inaugural address along with pledge taking, delivered by Prof. Monowar Alam Khalid, Dean, Students' Welfare, who reiterates the University's zero-tolerance policy towards ragging and its commitment towards providing a conducive learning atmosphere for all. He informed the students about the adverse psychological impacts of ragging, the potential legal consequences, and the need to cultivate empathy, acceptance, and mutual respect among peers. This was followed by an awareness lecture on UGC regulations and the legal consequences of ragging. Short films and documentaries produced by UGC were also screened, highlighting real-life incidents and preventive measures. Students enthusiastically participated in the placard display, and distribution of leaflets/brochures on anti-ragging guidelines.

Additionally, counselling sessions were conducted to address the concerns of newly admitted students. More than 150 students actively participated in the program, which was successfully moderated and concluded by Dr. Eram Fatima, Department of Languages, Integral University. The observance of Anti-Ragging Day and Week reflected the University's dedication to promoting safety, respect, and inclusivity on campus.
