Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar Jayanti is a special day celebrated on April 14th every year to honour the birthday of a great visionary leader Dr. Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar, fondly known as Babasaheb, the social reformer, economist, thinker, politician and the first law Minister of Independent India. Integral University, Lucknow, celebrated 135th Ambedkar Jayanti on 16th April 2026 at Hall-2 by organizing an awareness lecture delivered by Prof. Monowar Alam Khalid, Dean, Students' Welfare, Integral University, highlighting the ideals and contributions of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar in shaping modern India and promoting social justice.

The session was highly engaging with students by posing thought-provoking questions related to equality, constitutional values, and the relevance of Ambedkar's vision in today's society. The interactive approach encouraged students to reflect on their roles as responsible citizens. Also, Dr. Mohd Usama, Assistant Professor, Department of Environmental Science shared his views on the life and achievements of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, emphasizing his struggles, intellectual contributions, and his pivotal role in drafting the Constitution of India. The programme successfully enhanced awareness among students and inspired them to uphold the values of justice, equality, and fraternity. The programme was well organized as a total of 150 students actively participated in the programme, making the event meaningful and impactful.
