As per the eligibility conditions for National Eligibility Test (NET), the candidates who are pursuing their Master's degree or equivalent course or candidates who have appeared for their qualifying Master's degree (final year) examination and whose result is awaited or candidates whose qualifying examinations have been delayed can also apply for this test. However, such candidates are admitted provisionally and are considered as eligible for award of JRF/eligibility for Assistant Professor only after they have passed their Master's degree or equivalent examination with requisite percentage of marks within two years from the date of NET result.

Some of the candidates who stood qualified in the December 2018 and / or June 2019 UGC-NET / Joint CSIR-UGC Test for Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) under the UGC scheme and / or for Eligibility for Lectureship / Assistant Professor, have not been able to complete their Master's degree or equivalent course either due to unavoidable delays in conducting university examinations or declaration of results thereof caused by COVID-19 pandemic.

In the interest of the affected candidates, UGC has taken a decision to extend the last date for completing the Master's degree or equivalent course with requisite percentage of marks as per the eligibility conditions of NET till 30th June 2022 for December 2018 UGC-NET / Joint CSIR-UGC Test and 31st December 2022 for June 2019 UGC-NET / Joint CSIR-UGC Test.
