

Report on Debate Completion

A debate completion was held in the department of Languages on the topic “Is the Contribution of Women in the Struggle for India’s Independence Undervalued” on March 12, 2021 in the memory of those freedom fighters who sacrificed their life for the sake of freedom. A large number of students enthusiastically took part in this competition. All the participants spoke exceptionally well either in support or against the motion. The competition was judged on the parameters such as novelty and relevance to the topic, style of delivery, fluency and confidence. First, second and third positions were bagged by Deepak Kumar, B.A. (Hons.) English, (6th semester), Tazeem Fatima, B.A. (Hons.) English (IV semester) and Shah Alam, B.A. (Hons.) English (IV semester) respectively.

The event was successfully coordinated by Dr. Amna Shamin, Assistant Professor and Dr. Mursalin Jahan, Assistant Professor (Jr.) and judged by Dr. Aareena Nazneen, Assistant Professor (Jr.) and Arshi Khan, Visiting Faculty, Department of Languages, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Integral University, Lucknow.

Also, an essay competition was held in the department on the same date. The topic for the competition was “Indian Freedom Struggle”. Many students participated in the competition and presented their ideas on freedom struggle and the sacrifices made by Indians in the fight against the British Raj.

The event was conducted under the supervision of Dr. Aareena Nazneen and Dr. Arshi Khan and bore significant results. There was later a discussion on the concerned topic after the competition got over.

The winner of the competition was Deepak Kumar Sharma, BA (Hons), Sem VI, who in detail explained the plight of Indians during the British Rule and the fight against it.

New doc essay
competitin.pdf

The various activities went on successfully with complete participation and motivation of the teachers involved and had been a successful event under the coordination of the head, Dr. H.M.Nadvi.

