

A Report on the Special Lecture

Postcolonialism in Indian Literature in English

Department of Languages, Integral University

A special lecture on Postcolonialism in Indian Literature in English was organized in the Department of Languages, Integral University on Tuesday 9th March 2021 at 12:00 Noon. under the Chief coordination of the head of the department Dr. H. M. Nadvi. The organizing coordinator of the event was Dr. Aareena Nazneen. The welcome note was presented by Dr. Amna Shamim

INTEGRAL UNIVERSITY INSPIRING EXCELLENCE

Department of Languages
Integral University, Lucknow is organizing a special lecture on Postcolonialism in Indian Literature in English on
Tuesday 9th March 2021 at 12:00 Noon

Speaker
Prof. O. N. Upadhyay
Department of English & MEL
University of Lucknow

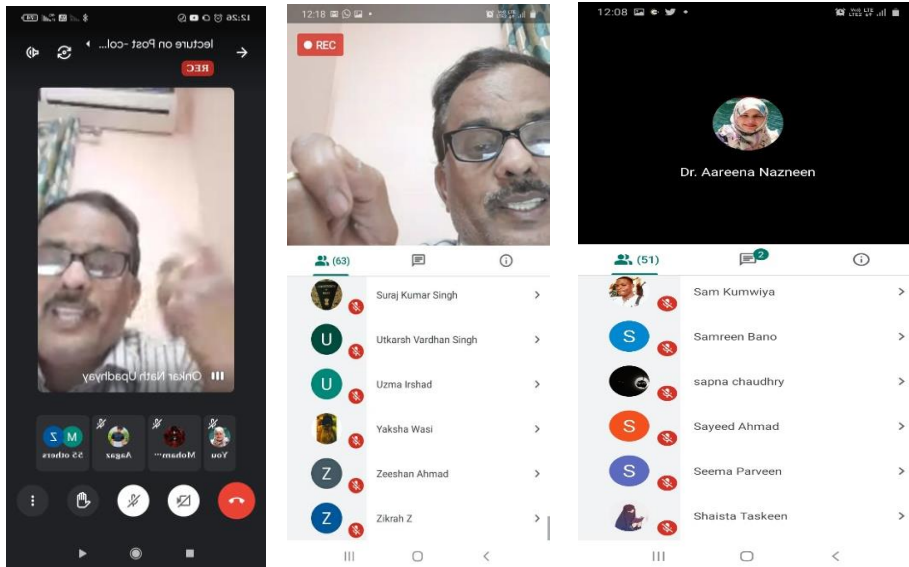

Organizing Coordinator
Dr. Aareena Nazneen
Assistant Professor

Chief Coordinator
Dr. H.M. Arif Nadvi
Head

Google Meet Link to join: <https://meet.google.com/pcb-sdem-nvq>

The lecture addresses the problems and consequences of the decolonization of a country, especially questioning the political and cultural independence of formerly subjugated people and dealing with the themes such as racialism and colonialism. A wide range of literary theories have also been evolved around the subject.

Prof. Onkar Nath Upadhyay, Prof. in the Department of English and Modern European Languages, Lucknow University was the guest speaker of the programme. He is shouldering various responsibilities including the UGC nominee of the governing body of PVKN Collage Chittore. His address was about the postcolonialism, problem and consequences and its relation to the literature of the world. The lecture was truly insightful.

There were 70 participants to be benefitted. The vote of thanks was proposed by head of the Department Dr.H.M Nadvi. Over, all it was a nice academic experience.

Regards,
Head &Chief Coordinator
Dr.H.M Arif Nadvi
Department of Languages
Integral University
Lucknow

