Dear All,

The Faculty of Law, Integral University in collaboration with the Association for Advocacy and Legal Initiatives (AALI) for the purpose of promoting collaborative action among the youth for solidarity and peer education on constitutional values, inclusion and gender equality organised a workshop on "Law and Constitution with respect to the Rights of Women in India" on 4th of March 11:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m. in the Seminar Hall, II Floor, Faculty of Law, Agricultural Building. The session commenced with the encouraging and inspiring words of the Dean Faculty of Law Dr. Naseem Ahmad. The entire session was divided into three sections emphasising the rights of women within the dimensions of Equality, Justice and Human Rights in the domain of the Constitution of India. The AALI team coordinators Ms. Neetu and Stuti along with its legal experts Ms. Apoorva Srivastava and Ms. Nagina led the session emphatically and inclusively with all the students present. The students and other participants were made aware of the practical instances of the violation of the rights of women. The students and other participants were

In all the session was interesting with the active participation of the students of the IV, VI and VIII Sem of B.A.LL.B., BBA.LL.B., and LL.B. Programmes. The students were given pre and post assessment forms for acknowledging their knowledge with regard to the rights of women. In the end, the students were provided with the lunch packets with an assurance of organising similar events in the near future.
