In the opening remarks Prof A K Saxena, Dean, Faculty of Commerce & Management, Integral University expressed that the seminar was intended to focus on to provide a platform for the participants to learn about the practices of Financial Inclusion by Government and Banks across country

Dr.RituSapra in her talk covered various aspects of the financial inclusion in Indian perspective.

She emphasised on the following topics during the event:

Leadership: Cultivate a broad-based government commitment to financial inclusion to help alleviate poverty.

Diversity: Implement policy approaches that promote competition and provide market-based incentives for delivery of sustainable financial access and usage of a broad range of affordable services (savings, credit, payments and transfers, insurance) as well as a diversity of service providers.

Innovation: Promote technological and institutional innovation as a means to expand financial system access and usage, including by addressing infrastructure weaknesses.

Protection: Encourage a comprehensive approach to consumer protection that recognises the roles of government, providers and consumers.

Empowerment: Develop financial literacy and financial capability.

A brief summary of the contents of the speaker talk is given below:

Question & Answer session: Many questions from the audience were taken up by the speakers during the Q & A session. The variety and range of questions raised show that the participants took an active part in the seminar.

The seminar ended with a vote of thanks by Dr. Syed ShahidMazhar , Head , Department of Commerce and Business Management, Integral University, Lucknow to the speaker, participants and to the organizing team who managed the entire event successfully.
