Event Report

Webinar on "Impact of COVID -19 on Indian Financial Markets"

Saturday, June 13th, 2020

The Department of Commerce and Business Management (DCBM), Integral University, Lucknow (India) organized a webinar on "Impact of COVID -19 on Indian Financial Markets" on June 13th, 2020. The event was streamed live on You Tube across the world Around 1200 participants from different backgrounds (Academician, Corporate Professional, Research Scholars and Students) across India and from other countries participated in the 120 minutes webinar.

Prof. A.K. Saxena, Dean, Faculty of Commerce and Management, Integral University discussed the role of changing environment due to this pandemic and its effect on the day to day life of an individual and on his financial status. He reiterated that all the sectors of the economy are in shambles, economic reforms have lost its credibility, reliability and authenticity and are required to be back to its pace to again deliver economic benefits to the society and country's economy.

Prof. Anil K Dubey, Emeritus Professor, Department of Commerce and Business Management, discussed changes in oil prices due to this pandemic. He further elaborated that till date due to COVID-19 stock market has lost about 250 Billion USD but hoped that the Indian financial market will recover soon.

Mr. Chittranjan Panda , Dy. Vice President & Regional Head, SBI Mutual Fund, deliberated about the response of the global economies towards this pandemic situation . He further elaborated that Banking and Consumer durable sector faced maximum loss whereas Healthcare and telecom sector has seen positive impact of this pandemic.

Dr. Syed Shahid Mazhar , Head- Department of Commerce and Business Management, conducted the event as moderator. He concluded the webinar with a vote of thanks to all the speakers, participants and to the organising team who have managed the entire event successfully. .
