It's a great pleasure to be reported that that the Department of Commerce & Business Management has organized a Guest Lecture on the topic "Central Excise Day " Speaker of the Session was Advocate Haider Ali, High Court, Lucknow Bench on 24th Feb , 2021, at 1:00PM. The lecture was conducted online.

Advocate Ali highlighted the key reasons for celebrating this even in the country by mentioning following points:

- Central Excise Day is observed every year on '24 February'. On this day in the year 1944, the Central Excise and Salt Law was created.
- The Central Excise Department has an important role in the industrial development of the country. This Ministry has reformed the tax system to make payment of taxes easier and has also increased the use of techniques.
- The Central Excise Department has an important role in the industrial development of the country. This ministry has reformed the tax system to make payment of taxes easier and has also encouraged the experimentation of techniques.

The speaker of the event concluded his speech by addressing participant that No nation could progress without a strong economy. Economic strengthening can happen only when we are able to fulfil our responsibilities with full commitment keeping national interest in mind. Be it a politician, a government officer/employee, or a common man. The financial management of our country is entirely dependent on various taxes collected from the public. Whether it is income tax, sales tax, central excise, customs duty etc.

Question & Answers session were conducted in which participants raised different questions related to taxes.

Concluding remarks were given by Ms. Nazia Akhalq & Dr. Rizwana Ateeq, organizer of the event gave vote of thanks.

Dean Prof. A K Saxena, FCM & Head, Dr. Syed Shahid Mazhar, DCBM appreciated the idea and motivated the organisers to conduct such kind of National events in the department
