

Brief Report on Webinar “Emerging Trends in Water and Waste Water Treatment” held on 6th June, 2020 organized by Department of Civil Engineering.

On the occasion of World Environment Day (05th June) the department of Civil Engineering, Integral University Lucknow has organized a webinar on “Emerging Trends in Water and Waste Water Treatment”, on 6th June, 2020. The webinar was based on the current water crisis in India. The eminent speaker was Dr. Izharul Haq Farooqui, Professor, Civil Engineering Department AMU, Aligarh. Google Meet was the platform to conduct the webinar. It’s delighted to note that more than 2100 participants registered for the webinar. The participants include academicians and students.

The session was started with the welcome by Dr. Syed Aqeel Ahmad, Prof. & Head, department of Civil Engineering, Integral University, Lucknow. The event was organized and coordinated by Mr. Nusrat Ali, Assistant professor and moderated by Mr. Zishan Raza Khan, Associate Professor, department of Civil Engineering, Integral University Lucknow.

The speaker gave lots of valuable Information related to emerging trends in Water and Waste water treatment. He also guided the participants how water should be treated during this COVID-19 pandemic.

Participants from several cities of India participated in the webinar including Lucknow, Muzaffarpur, Darbhanga, Aligarh, Sitamarhi, Gorakhpur, Delhi, Barabanki, Salem (Tamil Nadu), Kanpur, Ghazipur, Ghaziabad, Madurai (Tamil Nadu), Shahjahanpur, Varanasi, Gwalior, Ayodhya, Sultanpur, Madurai, Purnea (Bihar), Chandigarh, Pune and Mumbai.

The event was concluded by question-answer session to quench the apprehensions of the audience. Vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. Zishan Raza Khan.

Link of the Webinar: <https://meet.google.com/ayd-xupo-zea>

