Dear All,

The Faculty of Law, Integral University, Lucknow in collaboration with IQAC, organised a Motivational Lecture for Undergraduate students, "Personality Development" on 19th May 2022. It will also fulfil NAAC's purpose. The topic was BREAK THE SHACKLE. In addition to curriculum teaching, it is necessary to give extra-curricular inputs to the students. As we move deeper into the realm of information technology and artificial intelligence, students are unconsciously moving away from the real treasure of knowledge; the books. It is the book of history, science, law or literature and biographies even fiction which contain the wealth of knowledge accumulated by the humanity over millennia.

When a scholar is detached from books, he or she is like a rudderless boat which may reach the destination or go astray. The guest speaker, in her well-informed lecture, apprised students of the advantages of reading and the harm thereof, of not doing so.

The speaker, Dr Marya Naim is a speaker of international repute. She has secured her doctorate in Linguistics from Aligarh Muslim University. She is working as Assistant Professor, at IMS Engineering College, Ghaziabad.

She talked at length about the importance of nurturing dreams, guarding them, planning the course of life and ultimately attaining a station which leaves an impact on the world. Her talk inculcated amongst students the requirement of identifying disposition and traits of one's own personality and working on removing shortcomings or attuning in accordance with one's field and career. A total of 130 students registered for the lecture.

During the lecture, a good percentage of students were logged in, responded to the queries of the Guest speaker and posted their responses in the inbox. The link to Google Form for registration count was as follows:-
