Dear All,

The Scheme of a Faculty Development Program is designed to enhance the teaching and learning skills of the faculty regarding values, education and excitement for knowledge transformation. United Nations has also set the seventeen pointer targets better known as sustainable development goals that all the countries of the United Nations agreed to work upon for the better future of the country. In reference to this, the Faculty of Law in collaboration with IQAC, Integral University, Lucknow and UNAI organized a 14 Days Virtual Face to Face Interdisciplinary Faculty Development Program on "India's Policies and Prospects in achieving Sustainable Development Goals" from 13th July to 26th July 2022 via Virtual Mode. The FDP was organized virtually on the Official YouTube Channel of the Faculty of Law starting from the Inaugural Session till Valedictory for two hours on a daily basis. The Inaugural Session was held on 13.07.2022 starting with a Welcome address by Dr. Naseem Ahmed (Head & Dean), Co-Patron's Address, Prof. Dr. Mohammad Haris Siddiqui (Registrar) and Prof. (Dr.) Iqbal Ali Khan (Former Dean & Chairman, Faculty of Law, Aligarh Muslim University) was the Chief Guest who emphasized the relevance of Sustainable Development Goals in a globalized world and the role of India. Scholars from different fields led the session, followed by a question-and-answer session with the participants, quizzes, assignments and feedback. The Sessions were addressed by the following resource persons starting from 13th July to 26th July 2022:
