Renewable Energy and its Future in India
November 10-23, 2021

Dear All,

The Department of Physics, Faculty of Science in collaboration with Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering, Faculty of Engineering, Integral University is going to organize the Professional Development Program (PDP) on “Renewable Energy and its Future in India” from November 10-23, 2021.

About the Program

Indian renewable energy sector is the fourth most attractive renewable energy market in the world. India was ranked fourth in wind power, fifth in solar power and fourth in renewable power installed capacity, as of 2020. Installed renewable power generation capacity has gained pace over the past few years. With the increased support of Government and improved economics, the sector has become attractive from investors perspective. As India looks to meet its energy demand on its own, which is expected to reach 15,820 TWh by 2040, renewable energy is set to play an important role. The government is aiming to achieve 227 GW of renewable energy capacity (including 114 GW of solar capacity addition and 67 GW of wind power capacity) by 2022, more than its 175 GW target as per the Paris Agreement. The government plans to establish renewable energy capacity of 523 GW (including 73 GW from Hydro) by 2030.
