Day 2 17.07.2018

The faculty of law kick started the second day of the orientation as per the minute to minute schedule where on the Welcome address of the Dean/ Head of the Faculty of Law, the teachers introduced themselves before the students. The Library rules were made known to the students by the Departmental Librarian. The Programme coordinator and the Examination Coordinator put forth the intricacies of the course and the examination pattern before the students. The departmental Website coordinator gave a detailed presentation for the usage of the University Website, student mobile app, smart classrooms, etc.

The second day of the orientation was made special by the presence of a young, vivacious sitting Civil Judge, Mrs. Tehreem Khan, a RMLNLU Alumni, who shared her experience of being an extrovert law student who has accomplished the winning title of various international and national moot court competitions, a successful Law Intern and last but not the least being selected as a Civil Judge securing the 4th All India Rank at the P.C.S. (J) exam 2015.

After the intriguing interaction the students faced an interesting quiz session designed and drafted by the Faculty for which every student was given a token of appreciation on behalf of the faculty. During the quiz the new admissions also gave their introduction to the faculties and the seniors present.

The day ended with the interaction of the first year students with their seniors of second and third year throwing light on how enjoyable and informative their years have been spent in the University.
