UNIVERSITY
LUCKNOW - INDIA

NOTICE

Date: 23/04/2024

We are pleased to inform that the Department of Bioengineering is going to organise an extension activity entitled "Voter awareness drive" to create awareness on voting. The university has arranged a bus for transportation to Rajauli village. All interested students are requested to assemble at University Gate No. 2 by 9:30 A.M.

Objective: To raise awareness about the importance of voting and encourage eligible citizens to participate in the democratic process.

Schedule:

Date: April 25, 2023

Time: 9:30 A.M.

Meeting Point: University Gate no. 2

Activities Planned:

1. Interaction with Local Residents:

- Upon reaching Rajauli, students will engage with the local community.
- Conversations will focus on the importance of voting, civic responsibility, and the impact of individual votes on governance.
- Students are encouraged to actively listen to villagers' perspectives and address any queries they may have.

2. Rally with Posters and Slogans:

- A vibrant rally will be organized within the village.
- Students will carry posters and banners with slogans emphasizing the significance of casting votes.
- The rally aims to create visual impact and spread awareness.

Important Reminders:

Hydration: Given the hot weather, students are advised to carry water bottles to stay hydrated during the activity.

Active Participation: Let's make this drive a success by actively participating and encouraging others to exercise their right to vote.

Contact Information:

For any further details, please contact the event coordinator, Dr Ashish (+916388520482), and Dr Khwaja Osama (+919452684037)

Thank you for your participation!

Report on Extension Activity “Voter Awareness Drive” on the theme “Mera Vote Desh ke liye” conducted by the Department of Bioengineering in collaboration with NSS

Date: April 25, 2024

Objective: To raise awareness about the importance of voting and encourage eligible citizens to participate in the democratic process.

Participants:

154 students from B.Tech Biotechnology, B.Tech Biomedical Engineering, and B.Tech Food Technology programs participated in this activity.

Location: Rajauli, Kursi Road, Lucknow

Overview:

The “Voter Awareness Drive” was a collaborative effort by the Department of Bioengineering and NSS to promote active citizenship and empower individuals to exercise their right to vote. With the support of the government-initiated scheme “Mera Vote Desh ke Liye,” our students engaged with the local community to emphasize the significance of casting votes during elections.

Activities Conducted:

Interaction with Local Residents:

Upon reaching Rajauli village, Kursi Road Lucknow, the students split into smaller groups and visited different areas within the village.

They engaged in conversations with residents, discussing the importance of voting, its impact on governance, and the role of citizens in shaping the nation’s future.

Students patiently listened to the concerns and queries raised by villagers, clarifying doubts and providing relevant information.

Rally with Posters and Slogans:

The highlight of the day was a vibrant rally organized by the students.

Carrying colourful posters and banners, they marched through the village streets, catching the attention of passersby.

Slogans such as “Your Vote, Your Voice,” “Vote for Change,” “Aapka vote aapka adhikar” and “Every Vote Counts” echoed throughout Rajauli.

The visual impact of the rally effectively conveyed the message of civic responsibility.

Interactive Sessions:

In addition to the rally, the students held interactive sessions at community centres and public spaces.

They explained the electoral process, voter registration, and the significance of participating in local, state, and national elections.

Discussions revolved around the power of collective decision-making and the role of elected representatives in governance.

Impact and Reflections:

The “Voter Awareness Drive” received positive feedback from the villagers.

Many expressed gratitude for the initiative and pledged to vote in the upcoming elections.

Students felt a sense of fulfilment, knowing that their efforts contributed to strengthening democracy at the grassroots level.

The event fostered a spirit of civic duty and instilled a sense of responsibility among the participants.

Conclusion:

The “Voter Awareness Drive” served as a reminder that every vote matters. By engaging with the local community, our students played an essential role in promoting active citizenship and building a more informed electorate. As they returned from Rajauli, they carried with them a renewed commitment to encourage others to exercise their right to vote and actively participate in shaping the destiny of our nation.

Students arrived at Pradhan’s residence in Rajauli village.
