Dear All,

It is a matter of immense pleasure that the DQAC, Faculty of Law, Integral University has conducted a one-day workshop in collaboration with Association for Advocacy and Legal Initiative Trust (AALI), and Women Study Centre, Integral University on "A Feminist Discourse in relation to the Recent Amendments under the Criminal Laws" on 7th August, 2024 in T- Block, 1st floor, Seminar Hall, Faculty of Law. The workshop was graced by the presence of Mrs. Kavita Aggarwal, Chairperson and Dr. Halima Sadia, Secretary, Women Study Centre, Integral University.

The Association for Advocacy and Legal Initiatives Trust (AALI) is a women-led organization dedicated to advancing and protecting the rights of women, children, and marginalized communities. With a presence in Uttar Pradesh, Jharkhand, Uttarakhand, and Bihar, AALI offers technical support to women's rights groups across India and to further educate, empower and catalyse students, Faculty of Law has associated itself with Women Study Centre, Integral University which is established to redefine the roles of women by addressing gender issues and disempowering the still-existing gender biased strategies in the social, economic, political and cultural contexts and ultimately the aforesaid workshop paved the way for educate and empower students through capacity building.

The welcome address was delivered by Dr. Sadaf Khan. The pre and post assessment links were provided to students by Team AALI for the analysis of knowledge imparted. The keynote speakers of the event were -

1. Mrs. Neetu who conducted the introductory session.
2. Advocate Anjali discussed the core subject matter covering the principles of natural justice, rule of Law, and the major changes in the new criminal laws and in depth analysis of the same.

After the post assessment activity, the memento of gracious presence was presented to Mrs. Kavita Aggarwal, Chairperson - Women Study Centre, Integral University and TEAM AALI by Prof. (Dr.) Naseem Ahmed, Dean, Faculty of Law, Integral University and Dr. Seema Siddiqui, Head of the Department, Faculty of Law, Integral University respectively.

The event ended with a vote of thanks delivered by Mr. Ubais Ansari, Co-ordinator of the concerned workshop.

Regards,
Dr. Seema Siddiqui,
Head of the Department
