Voters Awareness Program
“मेरा पहला वोट, देश के लिये...”
23 March, 2024

It is with great pleasure to share the report on "Voter Awareness Program". On March 22, 2024, The Social Responsibility Club, Department of CSE, conducted a Voter Awareness Program with the theme “मेरा पहला वोट, देश के लिये...” (My First Vote for the Nation). The event aimed to educate and encourage students, faculty, and staff about their civic duty to vote and enhance their understanding of the electoral process.

Event Details: The Voter Awareness Program was conducted online at 04:00 pm, using an online quiz format. The method involved posing questions based on general and specific knowledge of the electoral process, legal rulings, and civic duties. The event targeted students, faculty, and university staff, urging them to cast their votes by taking a pledge to vote.

Participation: A total of 150 candidates registered for the event, reflecting significant interest and engagement from the university community. Of these, 115 participants, including faculty, students and staff, actively took part in the online quiz, demonstrating a commendable level of participation and enthusiasm.

Key Features: The program utilized an interactive approach, incorporating online quiz questions to engage participants and enhance their understanding of electoral processes and responsibilities. Additionally, feedback question was included at the end of the quiz to gather insights and improve future initiatives.

Recognition: All participants were awarded a "Certificate of Pledge," which they could download from the Election Commission of India's SVEEP (Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation) portal using the provided link (<https://ecisveep.nic.in/pledge/>). This certificate served as recognition for their commitment to exercising their voting rights and contributing to the democratic process.

Conclusion: The Voter Awareness Program concluded with resounding success and positive feedback from participants. Notably, all participants took the online pledge, reaffirming their dedication to fulfilling their civic duty. Feedback received highlighted the effectiveness of the program in enhancing knowledge and understanding of the electoral process, with participants expressing gratitude for the engaging and informative quiz format.

Overall, the Voter Awareness Program served as a catalyst for promoting civic engagement and empowering individuals to actively participate in the democratic process. By instilling a sense of responsibility and knowledge among participants, the program contributes to building a more informed and participative electorate, thereby strengthening the foundations of democracy.
