The event took place at Integral University, Phase-I, Lucknow. The event aimed to spread kindness, encourage giving, and foster a sense of community by fulfilling the wishes of those in need.

Activity Highlights

The Wish Tree symbolized hope and generosity, and participants were given the opportunity to fulfil wishes that varied from basic necessities to heartfelt desires. The event attracted students, faculty, and staff who actively participated in making someone's life a little brighter. The event officially began with a briefing session led by Dr. Saima Begh and Dr. Ayan Mustafa Khan. He emphasized the importance of kindness, generosity, and the impact of such initiatives on building a compassionate community. His words inspired the participants, setting a positive and motivational tone for the event. Throughout the two-day activity, participants carefully pasted wishes on the Wish Tree and committed to fulfilling them. The atmosphere was filled with a sense of purpose, joy, and hope as the community came together to celebrate giving and kindness.

Post-Activity Session

At the conclusion of the activity, all participants gathered for a debriefing session. Dr. Saima Begh and Dr. Ayan Mustafa Khan, two of the faculty coordinators, expressed their heartfelt thanks to Prof. Monowar Alam Khalid (Dean, Student Welfare), Prof. Syed Hasan Saeed (Head of the ECE Department), and all the volunteers and participants for their enthusiastic involvement. They also commended the student coordinators, Osama Saleem and Mo Saif, along with faculty coordinator Dr. Zohaib Hasan Khan, for their efforts and hard work in ensuring the event's success.
