Report on Agri-Crick Tournament, Department of Agriculture under the aegis of the Integral University Sports Academy

The Agri-Crick Tournament, organized by the Department of Agriculture under the aegis of the Integral University Sports Academy, was successfully held on October 18-19, 2024. This spirited T-10 departmental cricket tournament brought together students from the Department of Agriculture, fostering camaraderie and a strong sense of sportsmanship among participants. With keen interest, students registered for the tournament by October 16, 2024, and gathered on the university's grounds to compete, demonstrating their athletic abilities and enthusiasm for the game. The event provided an exciting break from academic pursuits and created an opportunity for students to engage in healthy competition and showcase their talents. Throughout the tournament, players and coordinators adhered to the established rules and regulations, ensuring that each match was played with integrity and respect for the sport. The tournament saw an impressive display of teamwork, skill, and sportsmanship, as each team strove to reach the finals.

The squads for the Agri-Crick Tournament were named after eminent scientists in the field of agriculture, with students participating under their names. Team A was named after Dr. Verghese Kurien and included Shubham K. Singh as team leader. Team B, named in honor of Dr. N.E. Borlaug, featured Mohd. Mustafik as team leader. Team C paid tribute to Dr. M.S. Swaminathan and included team leader as Aryan Singh. This arrangement allowed students to honor these legendary figures while showcasing their own skills and teamwork in the tournament.
