

Integral University Organizes a Seminar on “Following the Research Workflow using Elsevier’s Tools”

Human Resources Development Center (HRDC), Integral University organized a seminar on “Following the Research Workflow using Elsevier’s Tools” on March 06, 2018.

The motive of this event was to optimize for and provide with innovative ways, developing trends and its immense contribution in the modern scholarship. Welcoming Mr. Vishal Gupta, Customer Consultant, South Asia, Elseviers/Relx India Pvt. Limited, Dr. Syed Aqeel Ahmad, Director (HRDC), Integral University talked of the vital role of the modern Research Methodology for academician in all domains. He exhorted the audience to incorporate the words of the expert to improve their research work to benefit entire humanity.

Detailing the modern technology in the field of research, Mr. Vishal Gupta highlighted the modern and swift process of research. In his informative discourse, he said that Scopus can help researcher’s to find out what already exist, the global world of research, to determine how to differentiate research topics and find new ideas. Discussing the major and significant points of the topic, he said that the track impact of research, monitoring global research trends, identifying and analyzing journals are some of the key points need to be studied carefully. He focused specially on Scopus, Mendeley and Science Direct's immense contribution to enhance the research quality. Highlighting the role of proper documentation, he analysed Document Research, Compare Sources, Cite Sources, SJR, SNPP, Field Weighted citation impact and Plumx Metrix.

Appreciating and acknowledging the significance and importance of the topic, Dr. Syed Nadeem Akhtar, Dean Engg. & Director Planning and Research, Integral University, thanked the organisers for this informative session.

Mr. Zeeshan Raza Khan Dy. Director (HRDC) Integral University, proposed the vote of thanks